Ilse de Ziah is a composer, arranger and improviser, a classical, baroque and folk musician.

With accomplished musicianship and exquisite soul, Ilse de Ziah evokes music that is intimate and genuine, music she reveals in playing of striking purity and undeniable magic.

With a strong memory for learning whole musical works, the ability to play cello standing up, an ingenious improviser and having worked in many genres of music as cellist, singer, arranger and composer, Ilse makes for a versatile and compelling performer.

“The rich harmonics of Buachaill ó'n Éirne in Ilse's playing seem to make every word of this wordless performance speak a special music to us” (Tomás Ó Canainn)
